

Public Education in DC: At a Fork in the Road

21st Century School Fund; DCVOICE; Empower DC; SHAPPE; and WeActRadio.com

invite citizens, parents, educators, and students to a panel presentation and community discussion:

Thursday, March 29, 2012

6PM-8PM

Metropolitan Community Church
474 Ridge Street Northwest Washington, DC 20001
(Two short blocks from Convention Center Green Line)
Near 5th and M, NW

Panel Presentations with Public Participation:

- Overview of the history of race, class and public education in DC
- Perspectives from Chicago
- Where we are now: a fork in the road
- Proposed path for our future

Public Discussion:

- Public input and discussion on the proposed path for DC public education
- Next steps toward a better future

Chicago community in a silent march in front of the Mayor's house

Please help spread the word about this important meeting.

Print out this flyer and spread the word.

For more information call Nancy at 202-745-3745 ext.15 or email at nhuvendick@21csf.org